章节摘录

The Fifth National Census Office under the State Council has called on everyone for a factual report in the upcoming census due to be taken on November 1st. Any action which may put down the accuracy of the census is forbidden and will receive severe punishment. Liu Changsong, deputy director of the office, said at a press conference in Beijing on Wednesday. Almost all the preparations for the census have been finished, 6 million census workers have been selected and trained and initial residence registration has been accomplished. The census will start at midnight on November 1st. During the first 10 days of November, census takers will work from door to door. In order to get accurate data on the population, the central government has permitted households who have not registered their children who are "more than family-planning policy allows" to apply for lasting residence during the census. &hellip;&hellip;
