章节摘录

版权页： 插图： Task 2 Learning Sample Dialogues Sample Dialogue 1 Mei: What are you so excited about ?
Susan: Glen is going to have a party and we are all invited. Mei: But what is Halloween ?
Jane: Halloween falls on October 31st. It started as a Celtic ceremony to honour the dead. It was originally called All Hallows Eve. During the ceremony bonfires were lighted and animal sacrifices were made. Nowadays, the custom is for people to dress up in scary costumes. Mei: What kind of costumes do people wear ?
Jane: They may dress up as a ghost, a witch, a vampire, a monster or any scary creature that they can imagine.
Susan: The tradition has changed a bit because now children also dress up as cartoon characters, or a man will dress as a woman or they will dress as a storybook character. Young children then go around to peoples' houses where they live and receive candies and fruit from them. When the children arrive at a house they say: "Trick or treat !"
" If they don't receive any candy, they may do some mischievous things. Mei: What do adults do on this day ?
Jane: Many adults enjoy dressing up. It's fun. It's a good reason to get together with friends and attend a costume party. Mei: That sounds like fun. Task: Introduce Halloween to your group members. Sample Dialogue 2 (Pat and Mr. Li have been invited by their supervisor, Professor Robinson, to have Christmas dinner with his family.)
