章节摘录

Set the Clock 威廉的钟表店，每天都有一位神秘客人。

William is a clockmaker. He has a clock shop in a town. Every day a young man stops by, looks into the window and then walks away as fast as he could. One day the clockmaker asks the young man, "Why don't you come into the shop? Come in, please. I can show you my clocks." The young man says, "No, thank you. I don't want to buy any clocks. I'm the timekeeper for the town. I have to ring the bells at twelve o'clock every day. Sometimes my time is faster than yours. So I have to come here to set my clock." "Ah!

" says the clockmaker, "You're a very careful timekeeper, but I set my clock every day when I hear your bells!"
Words Bank clockmaker n. 制造或修理钟表者 town n. 市镇, 城镇 timekeeper n. 计时员 careful adj. 小心的, 仔细的 Main Structure *stop by 顺便访问 If you are in town, be sure to stop by. 如果你来镇上了, 记得顺便过来坐坐。

Translation 对时 威廉是个钟表匠, 在城里开了一家钟表店。
每天都有一位年轻人路过逗留, 透过窗户往店里看看, 然后很快地走开。

一天, 钟表匠问年轻人: "为什么不进来呢? 请进!

我来介绍一下我的这些钟表吧。

" 年轻人说: "不用了, 谢谢您, 我不打算买表。

我是城市计时员, 每天必须在12点的时候鸣钟。

有时候我的表比你的快一些, 因此我来这里对时。

" "啊!

" 钟表匠说, "你真是个细心的计时员。

但是我每天都是听到你的鸣钟后对时的!

" Quote Miracles sometimes occur, but one has to work terribly for them. 奇迹有时候是会发生的, 但是你得为之拼命努力。
