章节摘录

插图：Product Review. In October 1988, Grand Master Chef LUYaoqi and Grand Master Pastry Chef Fang Yuzhi represented Sunya Restaurant to compete in the Food Olympics in Frankfurt, Germany, winning a gold and a silver medal respectively. In 1996, Sunya underwent a substantial renovation and expansion project. A ten-storey high modern building is now home to the newly redeveloped Sunya restaurant, in which six floors are for the public: The first floor is called the "Sunya Celebrity Dining Hall", the ground floor is the "Sunya Cake House", the second floor is the "Sunya Cantonese Cuisine Dining Hall", the third floor is the "Sunya Specialty Dining Hall", and the fifth and sixth floors are for private rooms. With luxurious decoration in a refined atmosphere, Sunya offers an evening of sophisticated dining pleasure. At the same time, the management also revamped the menu. They kept only ten beloved classics, which includes Shrimp Saute, Smoked Pomfret, Rice-flavored Galantine in Preserved Bean Curd Sauce, etc. and discontinued over eighty old-fashioned dishes. And over two hundred snacks, one hundred and twenty seafood dishes and over fifty Cantonese Dim Sums were added to the menu. At the beginning of 2005, Sunya Food Base was officially established and went into operation. Adopting the traditional methods coupled with modern food processing technology, Sunya Food Base delivers impeccable food products to the market, including Sunya Moon Cake, Western-style pastry, gourmet cooked foods, preserved foods, semi-processed food, Chinese dim sums.
