章节摘录

Macedonia The friendship and cooperation between the People's Republic of China and the Republic of Macedonia enjoyed smooth growth in 2007 with fruitful cooperation in a wide range of areas. The two countries maintained high-level contacts. At the invitation of President Hu Jintao, President Branko Crvenkovski paid a state visit to China on 4-9 December. During the visit, President Hu Jintao, NPC Chairman Wu Bangguo and Premier Wen Jiabao held talks and met with President Crvenkovski. In a frank and friendly atmosphere, the two sides had in-depth exchange of views and reached broad agreement on further promoting the friendship and cooperation between China and Macedonia and major international and regional issues of common interest. During the visit, the two presidents signed the Joint Statement Between the People's Republic of China and the Republic of Macedonia on Deepening Mutually Beneficial Cooperative Relations. Macedonia reiterated its firm commitment to the one China policy and its position of not establishing official relations in any form or conducting any official exchange with Taiwan. It also reiterated its opposition to the entry of Taiwan in any international organization where statehood is a requirement and Taiwan independence activities of any form including the referendum on joining the UN under the name Taiwan. The representatives of the two countries also signed the Agreement for Educational Cooperation Between the Ministry of Education of the People's Republic of China and the Ministry of Education and Science of the Republic of Macedonia, the Protocol on Agriculture Cooperation Between the Ministry of Agriculture of the People's Republic of China and the Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Water Economy of the Republic of Macedonia and the Memorandum of Understanding on Sports Cooperation Between the General Administration of Sports of the People's Republic of China and the Agency of Youth and Sports of the Republic of Macedonia. Minister of Foreign Affairs Antonio Milososki visited China on 17-20 July. NPC Vice Chairman Xu Jialu and Foreign Minister Yang Jiechi met and held talks with him. Srgjan Kerim, President of the Sixty-second Session of the General Assembly of the United Nations and former minister of foreign affairs of Macedonia, visited China in August, during which he met with Premier Wen Jiabao and had talks with Foreign Minister Yang Jiechi.
