<<像世界一样大>>

内容概要

In half a century, China has extraordinary achievements. Its economic development - an example for the world - may cause envy in other countries. It is gaining in the battle against poverty. It titers each year and is caught in problems connected to modernisation, urbanisation, transportation, communications, energy, potable water, and pollution. It must still improve education, and develop science and technologies. But things progress, and one can see and feel the changes day after day; it is one of the main reasons why I like to live in China. In a country that has carried out so much in only a few years, one can only be optimistic. And optimism is a luxury today that many developed countries cannot allow themselves.

编辑推荐

中国在半个世纪的时间里取得了非凡的成就，她的发展足以令许多国家羡慕。

她取得了对贫困、文盲、疾病、儿童高死亡率现象斗争的胜利。

如今，她还需要同自然灾害作斗争，解决城市建设、交通、通讯、能源、饮用水和污染等诸多问题，还要发展教育、科学和技术。

对一个用那么短的时间取得了那么大成就的国家，我们当然充满了乐观。

如今，这种乐观是很多发达国家可望而不可即的奢侈品。

《像世界一样大》英文版由李莎所编。
