章节摘录

One day when Mr. Clarke was busy in his office , his wife called him. Their son didn't come back for lunch. And Miss Jones , Phillip's teacher , said on the telephone that he wasn't at school that morning , either. Mr. Clarke felt very worried. He drove around the town to look for his son. It was very hot that day and most people hoped to stay in the cool places. But Mr. Clarke had to look for his son everywhere in the sun. At last , he found Phillip swimming with some other children in the river. He made his son put on his clothes. The boy was unhappy on the way home. Mr. Clarke felt a little sorry and asked , "What are you going to do next , son. ?"

"Go roller-skating , " Phillip called out happily. "You'd better not do that , " said Mr. Clarke , "you'll get even hotter , I think." The boy became angry again. He looked out of the window and didn't answer his father's questions any more. Mr. Clarke noticed it and stopped his car in front of a restaurant. He said , "Well , let's have some ice cream here." Suddenly he saw a fly on Phillip's ice cream. He shouted , "Look at the fly ! Drive it away !"
