章节摘录

Liu Mei was on her way to the cinema. She saw an old woman at the side of the road. She stopped. The old lady went to the hospital to see her sick husband. But she lost the address of the hospital. She was very worried. She looked for it in her outside pockets. And she didn't find it. Then with the help of Liu Mei she found it in her inside pocket. Both of them didn't know the way to the hospital. So they went to ask a policeman. From the policeman they knew the hospital was far away from here. And it would take half an hour to walk there. They decided to take the No. 72 bus to go there. At last the old man saw his wife, and he was very happy. When they were talking, Liu Mei left and didn't wait for their thanks.
