章节摘录

Answers for Reference 1. To counter Loona Bimberton's feat of being carried eleven miles in an aeroplane. Vanity. 2. The tiger was so old that he ate smaller domestic animals only. There was widespread anxiety that he might die of old age. He had to take a short rest before he could attack the goat. What Mrs. Packletide shot was the goat instead of the tiger, which had died of heart failure, caused by the sudden report of the rifle, accelerated by old age. 3. Satisfaction of her vanity. Eclipse of Loona Bimberton. A thousand rupees to get the tiger, and a hold for Miss Mebbin to blackmail her. 4. No. Louisa Mebbin was satirized for her greed for money, and so are the villagers. Loona Bimberton's narrow-mindedness was also satirized.
