章节摘录

Meredith Fuller agrees . “ A code of conduct is hard to create when you ’ re living in a world in which everyone is exhausted from overwork and lack of sleep , and a world in which nice people are perceived to finish last . ” “ It ’ S about what Im doing and what I need . ” Andrew Fuller says . “ The days when a kid came home from school and said , ‘ I got into trouble ’ , and dad said , ‘ You probably deserved it ’ , are over . Now the parents are charging up to the school to have a go at teachers . ” This jumping to our childrens defence is part of what fuels the “ walking on eggshells ” feeling that surrounds our dealings with other people ’ s children . You know that if you remonstrate (劝诫) with the child , you ’ re going to have to deal with the parent . It ’ s admirable to be protective of our kids , but is it good? “ Children have to learn to negotiate the world on their own , within reasonable boundaries , ” White says . “ I suspect that its only certain sectors of the population doing the running to the school——better-educated parents are probably more likely to be too involved . ”
