<<"专转本"真题解析与考点汇编>>

内容概要

“专转本”考试已有多年历史，因其选拔严格，学历过硬，被称为“第二次高考”。为了让考生能有备而考，紧紧把握考试命题的思路和方向，同方教育机构组织旗下长期从事“专转本”培训工作的老师推出了《“专转本”真题解析与考点汇编》系列丛书，对“专转本”考试进行了全面深入的分析、研究，并合理地预测了命题方向。

本书不仅适用于在校生“专转本”，同时也适合成教、自考学生的“专升本”。

本书不同于其他同类型书的特点有二：一是本书并非一本单纯的真题解析，而是对考试复习方法的总结，是对解题技巧的归纳；二是本书的全部编者都来自“专转本”教育集团——南京同方培训集团的一线授课教师，熟悉学生的学习特点，了解他们的所需所求，因而解析的思路和语言更易于学生接受。

章节摘录

版权页： Passage 3 Questions 11 to 15 are based on the following passage The idea of a special day to honor mothers was first put forward in America in 1907. Two years later a woman, Mrs. John Bruce Dodd, in the state of Washington proposed a similar day to honor the head of the family-the father. Her mother died when she was very young, and her father brought her up. She loved her father very much. In response to Mrs. Dodd's idea that same year-1909, the state governor of Washington proclaimed (宣布) the third Sunday in June Father's Day. The idea was officially approved by President Woodrow Wilson in 1916. In 1924, President Calvin Coolidge recommended national observance of the occasion "to establish more intimate (亲密) relations between fathers and their children, and to impress upon fathers the full measure of their obligations." The red or white rose is recognized as the official Father's Day flower. Father's day took longer to establish on a national scale than Mother's Day, but as the idea gained popularity, tradesmen and manufacturers began to see the commercial possibilities. They encouraged sons and daughters to honor their fathers with small thank-you presents, such as a tie or a pair of socks, as well as by sending greeting cards. During the Second World War, American servicemen stationed in Britain began to request Father's Day greeting cards to send home. This generated a response with British card publishers. Though at first the British public was slow to accept this rather artificial day, it's now well celebrated in Britain on the third Sunday in June in much the same way as in America. Father's Day seems to be much less important an occasion than the Mother's Day. Not many of the children offer their fathers some presents. But the American fathers still think they are much better fated than the fathers of many other countries, who have not even a day for their sake in name only. (11. When did Father's Day officially begin to have national popularity ?

A. 1907. B. 1909. C. 1916. D. 1924. () 12. Who first started the idea of holding the Father's Day ?

A. Mrs. John Bruce Dodd. B. Mrs. John Bruce's Mother. C. The government of Washington. D. Some businessmen. () 13. What flower will be popular on Father's Day ?

A. Lily. B. Water lily. C. Red rose or white rose. D. Sunflower. () 14. Which statement is true, according to this passage ?

A. It took even longer for Mother's Day to gain national popularity. B. The businessmen helped to make Father's Day popular. C. Father's Day is only celebrated in America. D. Father's Day is only a trick of the businessmen to make money. () 15. What was the first reaction of the British public towards Father's Day ?

A. They thought highly of it and accepted it at once. B. They just accepted it at once without any hesitation. C. They just thought it a joke. D. They thought it was too artificial and took a long time to accept.
