章节摘录

Recently , I flew to Las Vegas to attend a meeting. As we were about to arrive , the pilot announced with apology that there would be a slight _____ before setting down. High desert winds had _____ the airport to close all but one runway. He said that we would be _____ the city for a few minutes waiting to _____. We were also told to remain in our seats meanwhile with our seat belts fastened _____ there might be a few bumps ( 颠簸 ) . Well , that few minutes turned into about forty-five minutes , including a ride that would make a roller coaster ( 过山车 ) _____ by comparison. The movement was so fierce that several passengers felt _____ and had to use airsickness bags. As you might guess , that's not a good thing to have happen in a ( n ) _____ space because it only _____ to increase the discomfort of the situation. About twenty minutes into the adventure , the entire airplane became very _____. There was now a sense of anxiety and fear that could be _____ noticed. Every passenger simply held on for dear life.. , except one ; A _____ was having a good time ! With each bump of the _____ , he would let out a giggle ( 咯咯的笑 ) of delight.
