章节摘录

Long bus rides are like television shows. They have a beginning, a middle, and an end &mdash;&mdash; with commercials thrown in every three or four minutes. The commercials are unavoidable. They happen whether you want them or not. Every couple of minutes a billboard glides by outside the bus window. "Buy Super Clean Toothpaste." "Fill up with Pacific Gas." "Only if you sleep, which is equal to turning the television set off, are you spared the unending cry of "You Need It !

Buy It Now !

"The beginning of the ride is comfortable and somewhat exciting, even if you've traveled that way before. Usually some things have changed -new houses, new buildings, some time even a new road. The bus driver has a style of driving and it's fun to try to figure it out the first hour or so. If the driver is particularly reckless or daring, the ride can be as thrilling as a suspense story. Will the driver pass the truck in time ?

Will the driver move into the right or the left-hand lane ?

After a while, of course, the excitement dies down. Sleeping for a while helps pass the middle hours of the ride. Food always makes bus rides more interesting. But you've got to be careful of what kind of food you eat. Too much salty food can make you very thirsty between stops. &hellip;&hellip;
